WISCONSIN DEATHS

GABRIEL NELSON.
HAYWARD—Gabriel Nelson, pioneer of Hayward, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Ramstad on Friday, April 3, from infirmities of old age. He was born in Norway December 31, 1839, and was married to Olianna Johnson Ness in 1871. In 1881 he came to America with his family, settling in Polk county where he remained until 1884 when he came to Hayward which was then a wilderness of virgin pine. A carpenter by trade, Mr. Nelson helped erect most of the early buildings. He was a charter member of the Norwegian Lutheran church and was instrumental in establishing the first Lutheran Sunday school in this section of the state, and until his advanced age prevented he was active in the work of the Lutheran congregation.
Funeral services were held from the Norwegian Lutheran church, conducted jointly by the Rev. C. M. Paulson of Hayward and the Rev. E. J. Nord of Rice Lake. Pallbearers were his grandsons, Alfred and Norman Olson, Gustaf and Adolph Haugseth, Harry Ramsted, and Carl Gilbertson. Interment took place at Greenwood cemetery.
Mr. Nelson's wife preceded him in death 14 years. Four children, Mrs. Anna Haugseth, Mrs. Henry Ramstad, F. O. Nelson and Charles Gordon, all of Hayward, survive. There are also 25 grandchildren, two sisters in Norway, and a foster son.

GABRIEL NELSON
Mrs. Gabriel Nelson died Monday morning at her home in this village after a lengthy illness.
Mrs. Nelson was born in Nösdal, Norway, sixty-six years ago. Came to America with her husband and children in 1881 and located at Richardson. The family moved to Hayward in the spring of 1884 and have lived here since. Her husband and five children survive her, viz: Mrs. Andrew Nelson, F. O. Nelson, Mrs. Anna Haugseth, Mrs. Henry Ramstad and Miss Mary Nelson besides an adopted son, Carl Gilbertson.
Two brothers survive her—A. M. Johnson of Hayward and A. J. Johnson in Norway.
The funeral occurs this afternoon. Brief services will be conducted at the house by Rev. Nord and the concluding ceremony at the Lutheran church.
Mrs. Nelson was an estimable woman and her greatest pleasure was in her home and family who were devoted to her.
The Republican joins with their many friends in extending sincere sympathy to the sorrowing relatives.
